I will not follow

Where the path may lead
But go where there is no path,
And I will leave a trail.

Administration

School Board and Administration

One of America's foremost contributions to modern civilization is free public education for all. With enthusiasm, creativity, far-sightedness, and good ole "Yankee ingenuity", the school board and administration of the Morganton City Schools have aroused unprecedented interest in the entire community for the development of the acme of quality education in Morganton. The importance of their work cannot be overestimated, and the courage they have shown in fostering this great American tradition cannot be too highly praised.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1968, being of sound (?) mind and body, do hereby bequeath our varied possessions to our immediate posterity, in the hopes that they will continue to strive and obtain the goals set previously for them by their elders.

Article I: To the faculty, administration, and Mr. Schiebout, we leave an expression of gratitude and appreciation for four years of unfailing tolerance, guidance, and inspiration.

Article II: To our parents and friends, we leave a deeper gratitude for watching us grow up to this point and for giving us the direction needed to become young adults.

Article III: To the city of Morganton, we leave, only to return and prove our individual merits to all.

Article IV: To the underclassmen, we leave the knowledge that they will soon have the experience of being upperclassmen.

Article V: To our heirs, the rising seniors of 1969, we leave the meager possessions that we have acquired during our four year stay here:

I, C.J. Saunders, leave my intellectual ability to Mark Fulk.
 I, Casey Baber, leave my cow and Put's zeros to Paul Patton.
 I, Gail Robinson, leave my quiet mannerisms to Madelyn Sossoman.
 I, Susan Irvin, leave my insane cackle to Cindy Darwin.
 I, Carroll McNeely, leave my skill with those terribly boring, corny jokes to anybody who will have them.
 I, Johnny Black, leave my ability to "get caught in the act" to Don Grigg.
 I, Darcel Bardshaw, leave my horn rimmed glasses to Sheila Ennis.
 I, Dixie Rollins, leave for Carolina—and YOU KNOW WHO!
 I, Frank Huneycutt, leave my chair in 5th period English, for sleeping, to Bill Curry.
 I, Steve Gregory, leave my "high spirits" to Butch Wall.
 I, Jimmy Williams, leave, regretfully, but knowing she's only one year behind.
 We, Sharon Tolson, Susan Houck, and Roy Blanton, leave our fond love of man's best friend—the horse, to Debbie Reynolds and Hazel Smith.
 I, Tommy Rippy, want to leave.
 I, Garry Shook, leave—Mr. Snyder in peace.
 We, Janis Bryant, Janice Clontz, Sandra Gilmore, and Linda Williams, leave our reserved manner to Janice Mull and Judy Kincaid.
 I, Ralph Johnson, leave my technique of "spinning-out" of the entrance to Broughton Hospital on rainy, slick streets to Dale Barrier.
 I, Susan "Jabo" Jablonski, leave my position of "mother" of the senior class to Beth Hotchkiss.
 I, Don Glasco, leave my love of cigarettes and women to Don Wilson, esq.
 I, Susan Cash, leave my skill of melting the hearts of 99% of the male populus of the Senior Class of M.H.S. to—well, nobody, because nobody else can do quite that.
 I, Bobby Denton, leave my place in the line to the time clock down at the News Herald to Wayne Simmons.
 I, William Augustus Leslie, leave my crooning ability to Gregory Braswell, who obviously needs it.
 I, Don Saunders, leave my novice as "the Wildcat's Wildman" to Paul Ingle, Jr.
 I, Karen Connelly, leave my title of "Miss Neat" to Joyce Fox and Joyce McNeely.
 I, Charles Butler, being a man of many and varied talents, leave nothing, for I am not through with any of them, yet.
 I, Jack Abee, leave my "five o'clock shadow" to David Broome.
 I, Robin Bounous, leave my reign as most respected senior girl to Baleka Beach.
 We, Betsy Boger, Linda Adams, and Laura Clark, leave our love of the library and Dewey to Irma Lee Simmons.
 I, Bobby Reece, leave my exclusive candy patents to Harold Trammell.
 We, Steve Woody, Benny Houston, Fred Cook, and Austin Smith, leave our ability to "hoss-it" to Kenneth Mull and David Woody.
 I, Crystal Whetstine, leave my uncanny ability to say the wrong things at the right time to Shirley Dale and Linda Pettigrew.
 I, Andy Patton, leave my horrid cackle at the sight of fresh blood and the terrors of the silver screen to Joe Bingham.
 I, Steve Costner, leave my bowling ball to Norman Brenneman.
 I, Becky Bauguss, leave my title as "Miss Winged Feet '68" to Ann Craven.
 I, Don Goare, leave two paper bags for carrying those "packs of six" and three "church keys" to Garry Hardin.
 I, Joe Patton, leave my professional-amateur golfing trips to David Mitchell and Ralph Pitts.
 I, Tommy Williams, leave my artistic talent to Phyllis Mauney.
 I, David "Hootchie-Kootchie" Hardin, leave my front row seat at the Fox to Don Reichard and Tony Nusz.
 I, Lindsay Browning, leave my title as "Wizard of Booze" to James Pearson and Ben Curlee.
 I, Diane Sigmon, leave my long, shiny locks to Mary Ellen Brown and Judy Franklin, who really aren't lacking.

I, Mary Lou Dougher, leave my large box of "coffin-drops" to Becky Myrick and Mary Avery.

We, Lawson Callahan and Birdie Adams, leave our skill of getting things done in "short-order" to Wayne Fonvielle.

We, Crystal Weller and Joanna Tyminski, leave our devotion of M.H.S. and the "deep South" to Maureen Dougher.

I, Max Poteet, leave "the world's widest grin" to Randy LaFevers.

I, Mike Buff, leave some of my towering height to Roger Thomas, who can use it.

I, Dorothy Conley, leave my studious ways to Nancy Largent and Christine Williams.

We, Toni Brown and Barbara Roseboro, leave our sense of humor to De-Etta Gentry.

I, Sue "P.A." Avery, leave my friendly attitude and manners to Cindy Harbison.

I, Joey Bannon, leave my ability to organize successful parties to Tony Yancey.

We, Harry Ervin, Carl Ferguson, and Pink Moore, leave our respective abilities of getting things done to Jasper Hemphill and Ervin Chambers.

I, Debbie Greene, leave my place on the Cat's Tale staff, to anyone who is capable and stupid enough to accept it.

I, Denise Beach, leave my memories of Ridgecrest and that special someone to Vickie Monroe.

I, Thomas Howard Brothers, leave my distinct individuality to Maity Browning.

I, Dennis Powell, leave my driving ability to Tommy Digh and Larry Turner.

I, Mitzi Strickland, leave my secrets of the baton to Janice Brown.

I, Walter Wall, leave my perfect Sunday school attendance record to Bernard Terry and James Twiggs.

We, Patrice Whisnant, Susan McNeely, and Sandra Isaacs, leave our respective good tastes to Sheila Tate, Martha Furst, and Beverly Sain.

I, Wayne Crosbie, leave my super-natural powers to Ralph Miller.

I, Cindy Hyatt, leave my ability of solid steel nerves for public speaking to Nancy Leatherman and Ruth Lane.

I, Chuck Fleming, leave my promptness and punctuality to Mike Johnson.

I, Rod Gantt, will my title of "M.H.S. Songbird" to Mike Mull.

We, Zelah Branch and Brenda Epley, leave our ability to make house to some deserving junior.

I, Bill Councill, leave my masculine physique to Jimmy Finger.

I, Harvey Brewer, leave my friendly and good natured ways to Andy Chambers and Wayne Thomas.

I, Walter van der Corput, leave for home with 500 of the best friends anyone could ask for.

I, Rita Earley, leave my power to vamp men to Sherry Hoffmeyer.

I, Tommy Smith, leave my job as Put's "gossip-getter" to Mike Kidd.

I, Dana Panarese, leave my ways of nonconformity to Martha Hogan.

We, Bruce Walker and Judy Gamble, and Dennis Deutsche and Susan Corley, leave to travel Love's rocky road ending in eternal bliss somewhere in the Twilight Zone.

I, Eddie Waldrop, leave in quest of newer and greater quests and achievements.

I, Micky Grady, leave my historical knowledge to Dennis Campbell.

We, Billy Duckworth, Dennis Ramsey, and Eddie Meyers, leave our mechanical skill to Gary Leonhardt.

I, Dereama Kelly, leave my skill to show up on time to have my picture made to Carol Cline and Judy Zimmerman.

I, Randy Buchanan, leave my semi-professional bowling tips to Randy Haynes.

I, Helen Farfour, leave my smile and pleasing disposition to Karen England.

I, Kitty Arney, leave my love of guitar pluckers to Deborah Golightly.

I, John McMurray, leave my love of academic life to Steve Black.

I, Janice McNeely, leave my management of the Ladycats to any junior girl who thinks she can do as well as I for the past four years.

I, Susan "Dugan" Conley, leave my hip swinging spirit to Sandy McGill.

I, Linda Leonhardt, leave my expert musicianship to Diane Smith.

I, Mike Rader, leave my place at the PATIO to Douglas Kiddy.

I, James Wright, leave my skill never to do wrong to Randy Murphy and Doug Smith.

We, Lynn Anderson and Susan Ratcliff, leave our title as the "Dynamic-Duo" to Linda Jones and Susan McCracken.

I, Zudie Cook, leave my obesity to Arland Edwards.

I, Ronnie Puckett, leave one share of stock in Puckett's Amalgamated Motors to Steve Hawkins.

I, Betty Denton, leave my knowledge of candy and Rose's to Debra Isaacs.

I, Vicki Browning, leave my most elegant coiffure to Susan Abee.

I, David Sigmon, leave my initiative and eagerness to Wayne Warren.

I, Nancy Phifer, leave my vivacity to Ann Propst.

I, Jerry Whetstine, leave my inexhaustable school spirit to Judy Harris.

We, Julius Harrison and Clarence Johnson, leave our quiet mannerisms to Charles Forney and Ronnie Davis, who can use some of it.

We, Jim Shuping and Ray Spencer, leave our love of the outdoors to Mike Sperati.

We, Janet Browning, Rita Brittain, Diane Kincaid, and Mary Maye, leave our genuinely warm-hearted natures to Brenda Webb and Lois Burnette.

We, Jimmy Crisp and Margaret Sakowski, leave our many, many fond memories "Down at the Farm" to any deserving junior couple.

We, Carol Cordell, Lynn Hollifield, Annie McKesson, Katrina Moody, Allen Orders, George Taylor, Wilda White, Jimmy Hawkins, Gerald Hicks, Leslie Smith, Cassandra Williams, Leona Hayden, and Mike McGimpsey left M.H.S. each day at 12:30.

I, Susan Hart, leave an autographed copy of "Hart's New Standard Revised Fishing Manual" to Dennis Smith.

I, Johnny Mayfield, leave my motormouth to Paul Fox.

We, Nancy Bishop and Barbara Lingerfelt, leave our carefree, fun-loving spirits to Debbie Woody and Janice Whisnant, who already have a few of their own.

We, Ronald Taylor, Phillip Robinson, and Sammy Smith, leave our unassuming characters to Charles Singleton.

We, Debbie Gantt and Kathy Pope, leave our neat appearance to Becky McIntosh.

I, Rhonda Cunningham, leave my modelistic appearance to any junior girl who thinks she can fill my shoes.

I, Scott Whisnant, leave my personality and ready wit to Dennis Bailey.

I, Shirley Carpenter, leave my secretarial powers to Sandra Tolbert and Janice Turbyfill.

We, Phyllis Reichard, Jerlene Perkins, and Beverly Rockett, leave our fond memories of Put's class and U.S. History to Shirley Gillespie, Debbie Puett, and Joyce Ross.

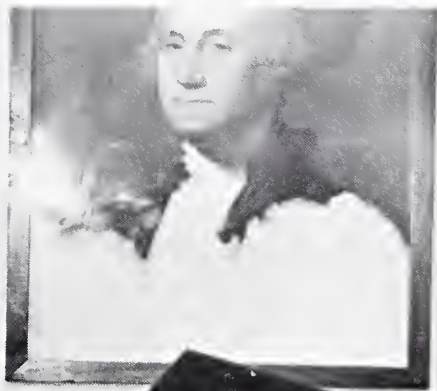

We, Sherry McGee, Linda Fairchild, and Susi Loy, leave with mixed emotions.

I, an anonymous senior, leave my place under Coach Carroway's window to Gail Whisnant.

Finally, I, John Mode, executor of the estate of the Class of 1968, do bequeath my cubbyhole behind the school store, to any junior boy gullible enough to accept it.

We, the Senior Class of Morganton, do hereby set our seal to be affixed on this the thirty first day of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty eight.

Prophecy

Vat!? You darre to qvestion my authenticity?!! Vhy, jusst let me gaze into my crrystall ball, and I'll predict vhat vill be in 1979. Firsst, ze madzic words: abra-cadabra, polyanna, teradactyl, polyunsaturate, iconoclast, cusheateth-mean, vituperation, gazebo. Ach! Good, I can see, for the frost within the ball is clearing! I can see it all now!!

The official prediction is, in 1979:

Thomas Howard Brothers is dogcatcher for Drexel. He's the only dog-catcher Drexel's ever had who can call dogs in Latin. (Et tu, Fido?)

Casey Baber has replaced Joe Pyne.

Joe Bannon has replaced Walter Cronkite.

Benny Houston is operating his own do-it-yourself crematory.

Reverend Don Goare (formerly Alabama Fatts or the M.H.S. sot) is valiantly leading a demonstration advocating the repeal of the 21st amendment. (??)

North Carolina General Assemblyman, Mike Buff, is petitioning the legislature to lower the maximum speed limit on I-40 to 35 M.P.H.

(My, have times changed!)

Congresswoman Karen Connelly is making a speech to a joint session of Congress. Listen: "... and furthermore, I abhor gaudy dress, I cannot condone the indiscriminate color combinations of the garb of our younger generation; therefore, I hereby submit this bill to change the color of stop signs from red and white to chartreuse and yellow."

Well, a T.V. show. Let's listen: "... and now the Tonight Show with Johnny Black! I'm Ed McWaldrop, and now heerres Johnny!" "Good evening and ... censored ..." I think I'll tune in Johnny later when he's doing his Ygor routine.

I wonder how his audience likes the show? Hmm, here's a happily married couple, Jimmy and Margaret Dunlap; they seem to be enjoying the show all right but my ball, it's ... it's fogging up, and ... er ...

Let us see if Governor and Mrs. Whisnant (Remember? Sure you do! Scott and Loudmouth Irvin!)—No, I can see they are not paying much attention to the Tonight Show. I think we should visit later.

Who is this? Why, it's Wiley Gregory with a patch over his eye and a bottle in his hand, standing next to his "Sot" with Camel. The only medal ever awarded Gregory was a lead cross. The War Department hoped that it would be a sufficient weight to keep him out of the sky after accidentally bombing the White House.

Bill! Bill Council? With a mustache? Yes, it's he. The only man on earth who would have a 1980 Rolls-Royce with "four-in-the-floor" and "tiger paws".

Walter Wall. I might have known. Standing in the driveway of his newly acquired Biltmore House. He's polishing an Edsel.

I wonder where we are now? "Las Vegas Casino, Adults Only." Who could be here? Of course, Bruce Walker and Judy "Gamble."

Question: "Should a man offer a lady a Glasco?"

Answer: "Only if she asks for it." Try a Glasco 101 filter tip, menthol, and plugs for your chawers.

Well, there's good old Morganton High, the same as it always was. Even a blue and white Chevy Belair. And there is the Morganton High School football team. But who is that coaching? It's Wildman Saunders, naturally. And who is that young lady making ice tea for the team during half-time? The former Miss Nancy Phifer. Mais oui.

What is this? A new golf club? It's a Joe Patton autographed "Pro-model". It's called the "sand trap iron". I think Joe has finally found an easy way to get out-of-the-trap.

The Max Poteet sure-flight "floating ball" is Max's remedy for his poor golf game. With his new ball, he finally broke three hundred.

Gads! There's pretty Dereama Kelly standing near a coffin, Gary that is!

Among the Morganton Globe Trotters are Crystal Weller, Cassandra Williams, and Mary Lou Dougher.

"Bird" watcher Robin Bounous is galavanting around a glen.

We ain't got no teachers have we? We sure does. Debbie Greene, Lynn Anderson, Darcel Bradshaw, Susan Corley, Dorothy Conley, Crystal Whetstone, and Rita Earley are all on the M.H.S. staff of rampaging instructors.

There's a Ford going 115 m.p.h. Who else could it be but Jimmy Williams? But where could he be going in such a hurry? To the "beach", where else?

Adamant politicians David Sigmon, Dennis Deutschle, Harvey Brewer, and Andy Patton are trying to decide whether or not to run Chuck Fleming for U.S. Senator.

Artists Susan Houck, Tommy Williams, and Susan Hart are holding an art show in Paris.

Vicki Browning, "Jabo", and Linda Leonhardt are standing near their respective husbands at a very formal operatic extravaganza and are naturally discussing the vital matters of the day—or more generally termed "gossiping".

Bobby Denton is in the world finals in the Olympic tennis competition.

Lindsay Browning is the head of the Browning Brew and Bilge Liquor Distillery.

AGH! ACH! and YEOW! my crystal ball—it's growing hot! It's . . . undulating! Great "Scott"—it's Susan Cash! No, it's only her picture on a movie poster: SEE THIS SENSATIONAL MOVIE FOR MATURE AUDIENCES ONLY! THE CRITICS RAVED! STARRING: SUSAN CASH, BORIS KARLOFF, ROD GANTT, AND SHIRLEY TEMPLE IN "FRANKENSTEIN GOES TO KINDERGARTEN", now playing at the Hootchie-Gootchie-Hardin Drive-In Theater.

Scene: The Library of Congress. "SHHHH!!" expectorates head librarian, Betsy Boger, to her exotic assistants, Linds Williams and Adams.

I don't believe my eyes! It's watermelon tycoon, Ralph Johnson, and his faithful little thumper, Toni Brown, who, by the way, is chasing him for a change.

"Goodeveningkidsandwelcometothetopsinpopandmoldyoldiesandofcourse-goldies. This is your swinging, singing, vociferous, verbose, and verboten D.J., the bouncing baby boy with the cute little dimples, ELVIS LESLIE! Did you know that I'm the only D.J. here at WLS who parts the hair on his legs?" For the benefit of every senior at M.H.S., (and for a good laugh), ask Elvis what happened at "Richard's Dock" one balmy spring afternoon.

"Fortissimo! ARGH! You know the rules!" BLAM! Mahler von Mode just shot off the xylophone player's only toe. (The player made the same mistake nine times before.) The Nord Deutches Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Mahler von Mode, is the only orchestra in the world with only three toes among the entire woodwind and percussion sections.

Diplomat to Rome, Helen Farfour, is gootching the Pope. Gads!

Samaritan Denise Beach is instructing underprivileged children in the art of dismantling a Steinway and then reselling it at Ramsey's New and Used Junk Shop for a profit!

Sirens Becky Bauguss, Rhonda Cunningham, Debbie Gantt, Mitzi Strickland, Cathy Pope, and Susan Conley are scorching the silver screen with their incomparable radiance, charm, and in 99% of the cases, beauty.

FBI man, Ronnie Puckett, has been assigned to the task of protecting the afore mentioned sirens from the impetuous lover, C.J. Saunders.

Philosopher Carroll McNeely advocates the repeal of the 13th, 16th, 19th, and 20th amendments to the Constitution.

Money-grubber and tax collector, Johnny Mayfield, and his magnanimous assistant, Wilda White, are enjoying life to its fullest as they assess the van Shook estate.

What a droll coincidence that Bobby Reece and Walter van der Corput are pilots with Huneycutt Royal Dutch Airlines.

Pinkerton men, Wayne Crosbie and Jack Abee, have been assigned to protect themselves from each other and Hunt Riddle.

The fuming effervescent fluid is so corrosive that it is mandatory that it be kept in glass-lined vats provided by Dixie Rollins, Inc. Dixie has always been filled with good spirits.

Hell's Angels, Philip Robinson, Donald Hunter, and Foamy Fonvielle are the only ones with mink-lined motorcycle jackets.

Cute, content, and serene housewife, the former Nancy Bishop, is busily pinching tomatoes, thumping Johnson's watermelons, and snatching frozen foods at her friendly neighborhood Blanton's Supermarket.

Jerry Whetstone is busily instructing his two sons in the art of football while his wife, the former Theresa Bower, is illustrating the epicurean rituals to her six daughters.

Janice Clontz, Janet Browning, Janis Bryant, Sandra Gilmore, Lynn Hollifield, Sandra Isaacs, Diane Kincaid, Florence Avery, Barbara Lingerfelt, Janice McNeely, Susan Ratcliff, Phyllis Reichard, and Beverly Rockett are now Mrs., and are contributing much to the rapidly expanding city of Morganton.

Attorney General Johnathan McMurray commutes daily from Morganton to Washington, D.C. in his private jet, a DC#35 by the way, built by McMurray Aircraft Company of McMurraysville, U.S.A., formerly Los Angeles.

The former Kitty Arney is now in route to Paris for a rest after traveling with her folk-singer husband for the past two years.

NASCAR drivers Steve Woody, James Wright, Austin Smith, Billy Duckworth, Lawson Callahan, Ronald Taylor, Tommy Smith, Jim Shuping, Tommy Rippy, Dennis Powell, Eddie Meyers, Fred Cooke, and Randy Buchanan are all vehemently competing against one another in the annual "Costner 500".

Interior decorators Patrice Whisnant, Carolyn Webb, Mary Houpe, Sharon Tolson, Judy Spainhour, Diane Sigmon, Gail Robinson, Susan McNeely, Betty Denton, Zudie Cooke, Rita Brittain, Laura Clark, Cindy Hyatt, and Sherry McGee are working their dedicated hearts out trying to beautify the interiors of the world.

Well, what about me — the Mystic Prophet of the Senior Class, good old Baron von Butler? What will I be? What is to become of me? The seething clouds of mist within my "crrystall" ball is becoming lucid; I can see it now! Yes! Ah, I knew it! The grateful people of the earth have erected a monument to me! What a lovely one it is, too; what a beautiful shade of marble, so shiny, with nice block letters.

So, you want to read the inscription

AGHH

Savage Sobriety

Seven steps, eight steps, nine steps, ten,
Fall flat on your face and start over again.

Beat on the walls and hang from the ceiling,
Then stop and remember what gave you the feeling.

Now think of the guy with the greased-up hair,
How he crawls down the halls and pretends he's a bear.

Look down in the ground and pretend you see Hell,
The guy with the pitchfork we all know so well.

Now you can do it and do it right,
But tomorrow old greaser might want to fight.

Think how you'll take him on your way up to physics,
And remember that Satan discourages fistics.

And when you are paged don't hang from the ceiling,
Because if you do the walls will start reeling.

You think of dynamite, glowing and bright,
And a good place to light it on some dark dismal night.

But no, you're too close, too close to the end,
And many would hate to lose such a friend.

A friend who has guided them through stormy weather,
A friend who has helped their skin turn to leather.

Builder of champions, Morganton High,
Many have wondered and now they know why!

At the center of enthusiastic school spirit are our cheerleaders who inspire the desire to win at every game and encourage high spirits at every pep rally. Sometimes when defeat is apparent, they are the ones who yell the loudest. Morganton High is proud of these seven girls who work continuously to win support for their team.

Wildcats 1968

The 1968 Wildcats achieved the best record in M.H.S. history, 17 won - 5 lost. They placed second in the Northwestern Conference semi-finals but lost to their archrivals, Hickory, in the conference tournament. Recognizing their efforts, the student body, as well as the community, is proud of the team's accomplishments.

The Ladycats once again refused to surrender their position as champions. Through diligence and dedication, the girls won the Northwestern Conference Championship, only to come in second in the Northwestern Conference Tournament, losing to Marion by three points. The biggest disappointment was defeat by Shelby in the Bi-Conference Tournament; nevertheless, pride in the team's 22-3 record is still evident among the students.

Any coach will say, "A person can only get out of a sport what he puts into it." The members of the golf teams of Morganton High have spent many untold hours of practice in perfecting their games, and six championship trophies prove this. These quiet, unassuming boys, with the encouragement and direction of Professional Joe Cheves and Coach Earl Broome, have continued a tradition unprecedented by any other group in the school's athletic history. Yet, they receive little glory or recognition from the student body. Rather, enthusiasm and unselfish devotion are the key factors which assure the excellence and school spirit that these boys display.

Key Club

Progressive civilization has evolved in man's conquest to master the unknown. By seeking out and tapping new resources of knowledge, he has been able to overcome his ignorance and satisfy his thirst for learning. To continue this advancement, the theme of Key Club International for 1967-68 is UNDERSTANDING THROUGH INVOLVEMENT in the club, the community, the nation, and the world.

The twenty-four members of the Key Club of Morganton High strive ardently to broaden their scope of education, to serve their school and community, and to meet the challenges of tomorrow by laying the proper foundations today.

The Girls' "M" Club is composed of those girls who have lettered either in cheerleading or basketball. Their main yearly project is the sale of programs at home football games. This year an additional goal of the club was an emphasis on improving and increasing school spirit.

Foreign exchange student, Walter van der Corput.

American Field Service

The American Field Service promotes enthusiasm for the exchange program of foreign students. This service helps students to gain a better understanding of foreign countries, their cultures and their people.

After returning to his home, Walter plans to enter military service for his required term. He plans then to enter college to study economics. He hopes to be a businessman, possibly an accountant.

Too soon, Walter must return to Holland and it is our hope that he returns with warm memories of his friends and experiences with students at Morganton High School.

Assuredly, Walter has left with us an indelible impression of personal friendship for himself and his country.

Morganton High School has been fortunate in having foreign exchange students for the past several years. They have come to us from Finland, Germany, Switzerland, and Sweden. This year A.F.S. has sent us Gualtherus Ferdinand Gosef van der Corput of Ulaardinger, South Holland. Making his home here with Dr. and Mrs. John C. Reece of Riverside Drive, he has become known as "Walter."

With the help of his American brother, Bobby Reece, Walter has become accustomed to our school and our way of life. As an active member of the student body, he has become an honor student, a senior class officer, and a class superlative. These accomplishments attest to his own capabilities and to the warm regard of the student body toward him.

Walter has made friends through both his school activities and his community experiences. Walter's interests range from the serious study of economics to the enjoyable association with girls. While here, he has enjoyed swimming, listening to American music, sampling different American foods, and traveling to various places, such as Florida.

During the last half of the year, Walter has spent much of his time preparing talks and presenting a comparison between the customs and social graces in Holland with those in America.

Then, typical of any other member of the Senior Class, he has been caught up in the whirl of preparation for graduation.

Drama

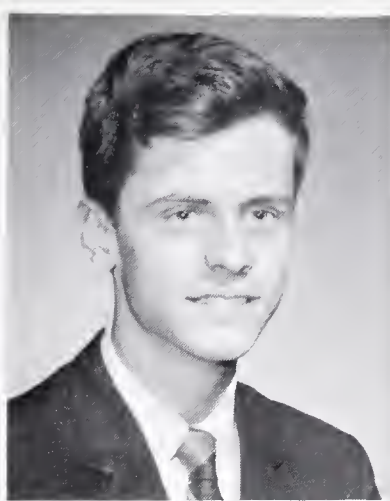

A newly formed club at Morganton High School, the Dramatics Club, enables students to take part in the production of plays chosen by the executive committee. Under the leadership of Mr. Genet, this club has stimulated participation in the dramatic arts, as well as provided valuable training and experience for persons interested in pursuing a future in this field.

Club

Quill and Scroll

Shrouded in mystery and elusiveness, the Quill and Scroll is perhaps the most elite club at Morganton High. A chapter of the national organization, the Quill and Scroll recognizes only six of the most outstanding M.H.S. students in the field of journalism. The high calibre of their talent is evident in the school publications, the Cat's Tale and the Cauldron.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America strive for excellence in the field of homemaking. Included in the projects of the club are selling M.H.S. pin-ups, making M.H.S. football stickers, having baked food sales, giving a party for the children at Western Carolina Center, and baking cookies for the teachers' lounge.

Future Teachers

of America

The Future Teachers of America has as members those students who show an interest in the teaching profession. Programs are presented by local speakers who are in various educational fields and can provide the necessary information to prospective educational leaders. Club activities include giving Halloween costumes to Western Carolina Center children, sending books to soldiers in Vietnam at Christmas, selling Christmas cards, and participating in other money raising projects.

The Science Club arouses the interest and curiosity of the students in the field of scientific research. Its various activities throughout the year included the presentation of an assembly program, adoption of a constitution, and awarding a scholarship to a scientifically gifted senior.

Spirit of Morganton High

A newly formed club, the Spirit of Morganton High, was established as a result of the need for more school spirit, more support for the band, and more unity within the student body. Membership is based on those interested in its purposes in addition to a representative from each club and class.

Front Row: J. Gamble, R. Bounous, S. Conley, S. Corley, B. Lingerfelt, S. Avery, B. Boger, J. Spainhour. Second Row: W. van der Corput, S. Smith, C.J. Saunders, S. Whisnant, L. Browning, M. Euclidean

Unlike other clubs whose members show ability in an academic field, the Euclidean Society does not require its participants to have a B average. Instead, the club feels that sincere interest in mathematics is an important prerequisite for success, and one main objective is to help a slower student understand and enjoy math. Although this club had its start only a year ago, its reputation is widespread as a result of one of its major projects, a highly successful Spring Follies.

Latin Club

The Latin Club strives to create an interest in classical culture and civilization. Additional projects include the Roman banquet, the initiation of new members, the annual candy sale, awarding a scholarship to a deserving senior, and taking a trip to Chapel Hill to attend the North Carolina Junior Classical League Convention. This club also boasts of Scott Whisenant who, as president of the J.C.L., will preside over the state convention.

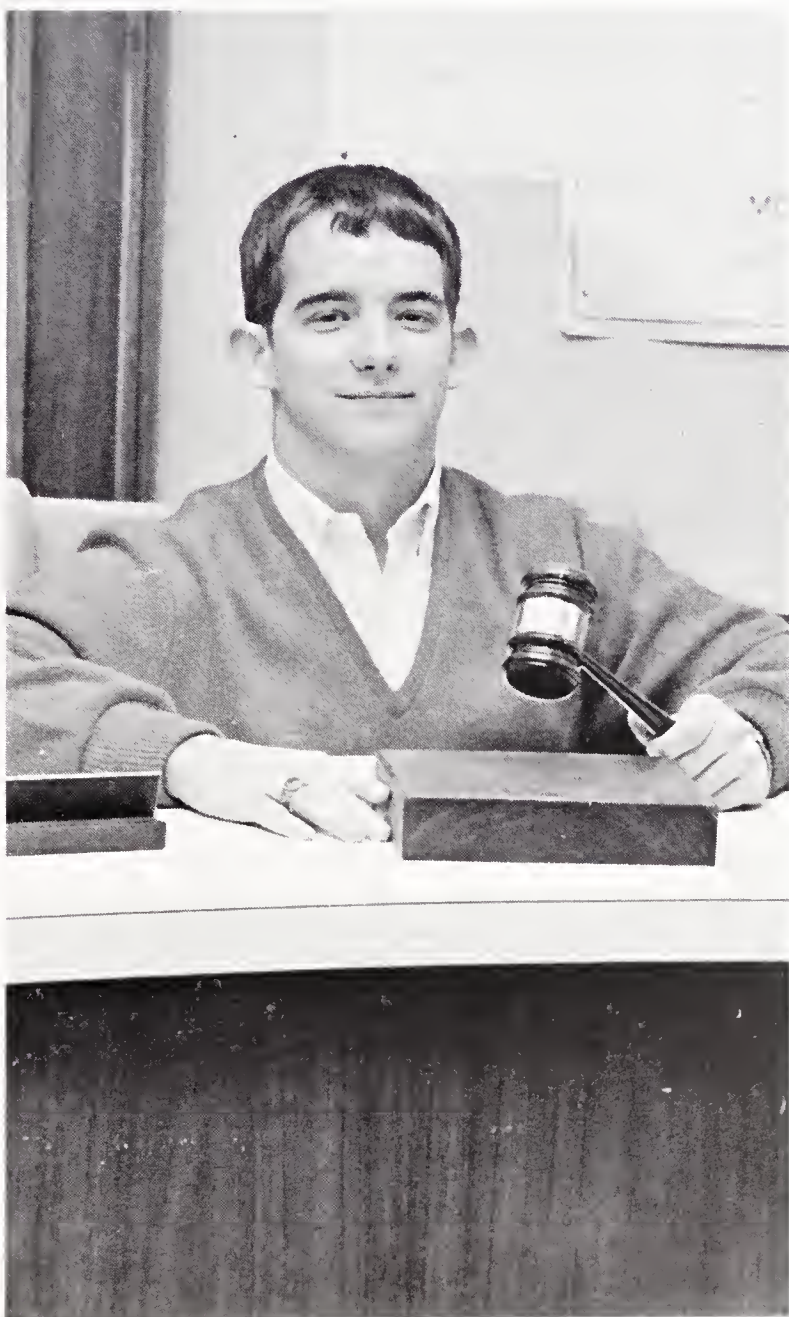

I.L. Simmons, L. Adams, J. Taylor, M.F. Pruitt, sec.; L. Clarke, treas.; B. Boger, pres.

Library Club

The members of the Library Club voluntarily assist Mrs. Deal in helping students, in arranging the books neatly on the shelves, in repairing damaged books, and in keeping the library records.

Last spring, the club sponsored a student-teacher basketball game in order to raise funds for new plastic magazine covers and new book-ends. They also donated to the Christmas Cheer Fund.

Scott Whisnant, N.C.J.C.L. president

VICA

The Morganton High School chapter of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is a youth organization for trade, technical, and industrial students. All students who participate in the I.C.T. program are eligible for membership, and this year there are twenty five active members.

VICA strives to develop the social and leadership abilities of the students as well as their skills. The six major goals which set the pace for VICA students are personal growth, community understanding, safety, teacher recruitment, vocational youth cooperation, and good public relations.

DECA

Deca identifies the Program of Youth Activity relating to Distributive Education and is designed to develop future leaders for the marketing and distribution of products. The purposes are to develop a respect for education in marketing and distribution which will contribute to occupational competence; and to promote understanding and appreciation for the responsibilities of citizenship in our free, competitive enterprise system.

Annual

As the all so familiar "green door" quietly closes behind the 1968 Annual Staff, the many moments of apprehension, of uncertainty, and of delight flash vividly to mind. One recalls the long hours of tedious work, the organizing of ideas, the drawing and redrawing of layouts, and the writing and rewriting of copy. One's mind easily fills with the many treasured memories—the memories of involvement, of achievement, and of satisfaction. Yet, the year soon passes, taking with it the senior staff, who not only leaves behind a world of challenge and of personal satisfaction, but a part of itself — — the 1968 Cat's Tale!!

Chorus

The Chorus of Morganton High School engages in group effort to enable vocally talented students to develop their interests in music. This group works in conjunction with the band to present various programs of music throughout the year.

Whether lurking inconspicuously in the halls or quietly verifying the latest bit of gossip, the Cauldron staff carries on a tradition as old M.H.S. itself. Striving to provide both students and faculty with a “brew of what’s new”, the staff compiles and publishes a paper worth reading—The Cauldron!

Band

The Morganton High School Band, composed of almost sixty student musicians, is one of the most spirited of all organizations. It is under the capable direction of Mr. Ray Babelay who is assisted by Mr. Jim Fisher.

This musical group performed at all the pep rallies and football games of the 1967 season. They attended the Southeastern Marching Band Festival in Bristol, Tennessee, played at both the Miss M.H.S. pageant and the homecoming festivities at the School for the Deaf, and welcomed the teachers and new board members back to school at the beginning of the year.

After marching season ended, the band began practice for their annual Christmas concert which was held on December 14th. They marched in two Christmas parades and also entertained some of the patients at Broughton Hospital with Christmas music.

Majorettes: S. Bishop, M. Strickland, head; J. Brown.

Following Christmas festivities, came rehearsals for and participation in the district and state contests.

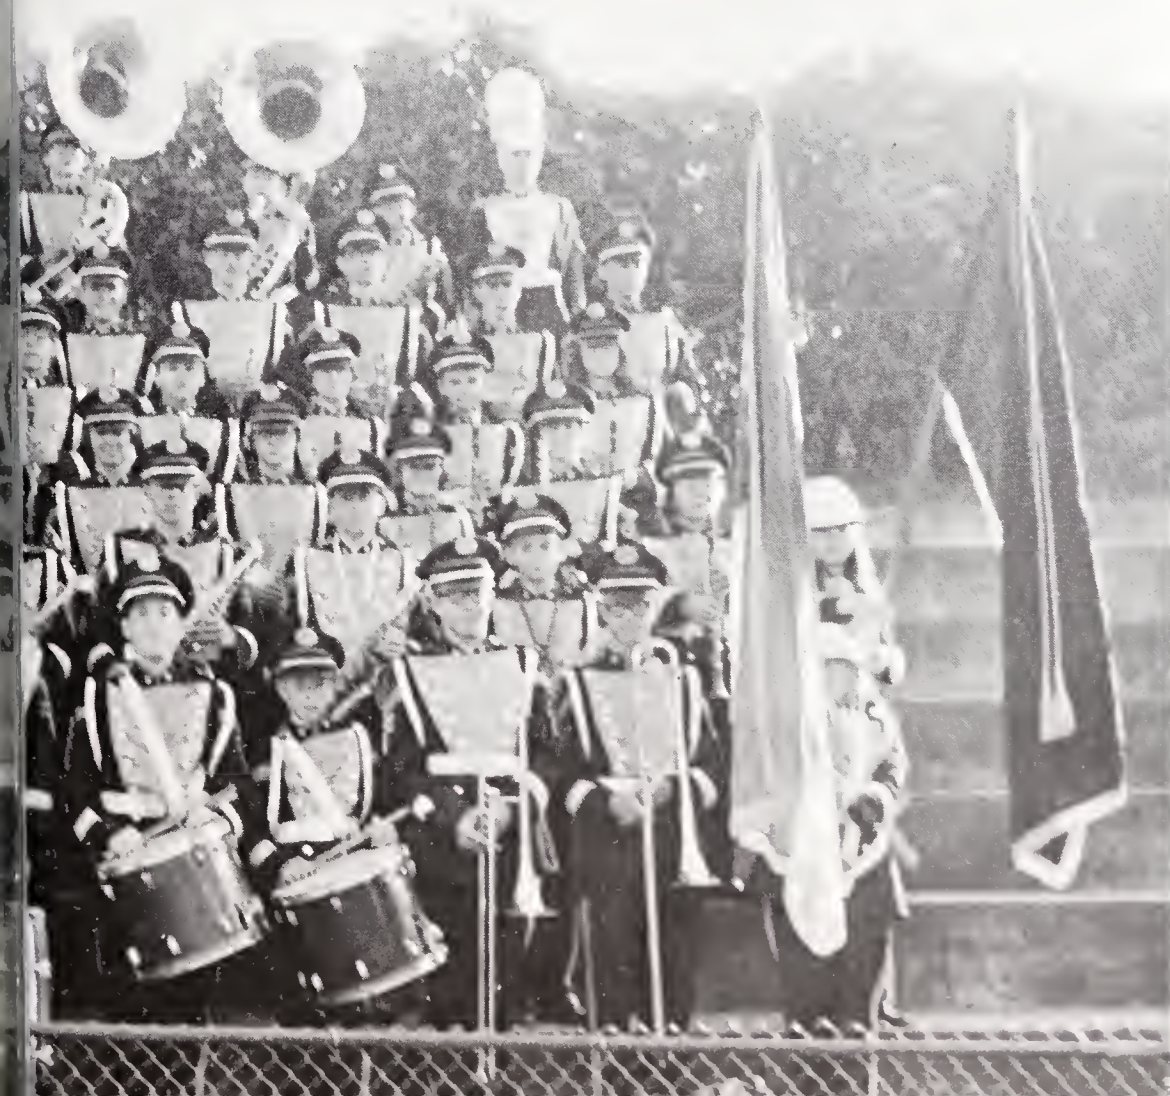

As they completed the year, the band held its spring concert where the senior members were honored.

This year the majorettes were led by Mitzi Strickland, who is Miss Tar Heel Twirling Queen of 1967-68, and they presented interesting and intricate exhibitions for our enjoyment.

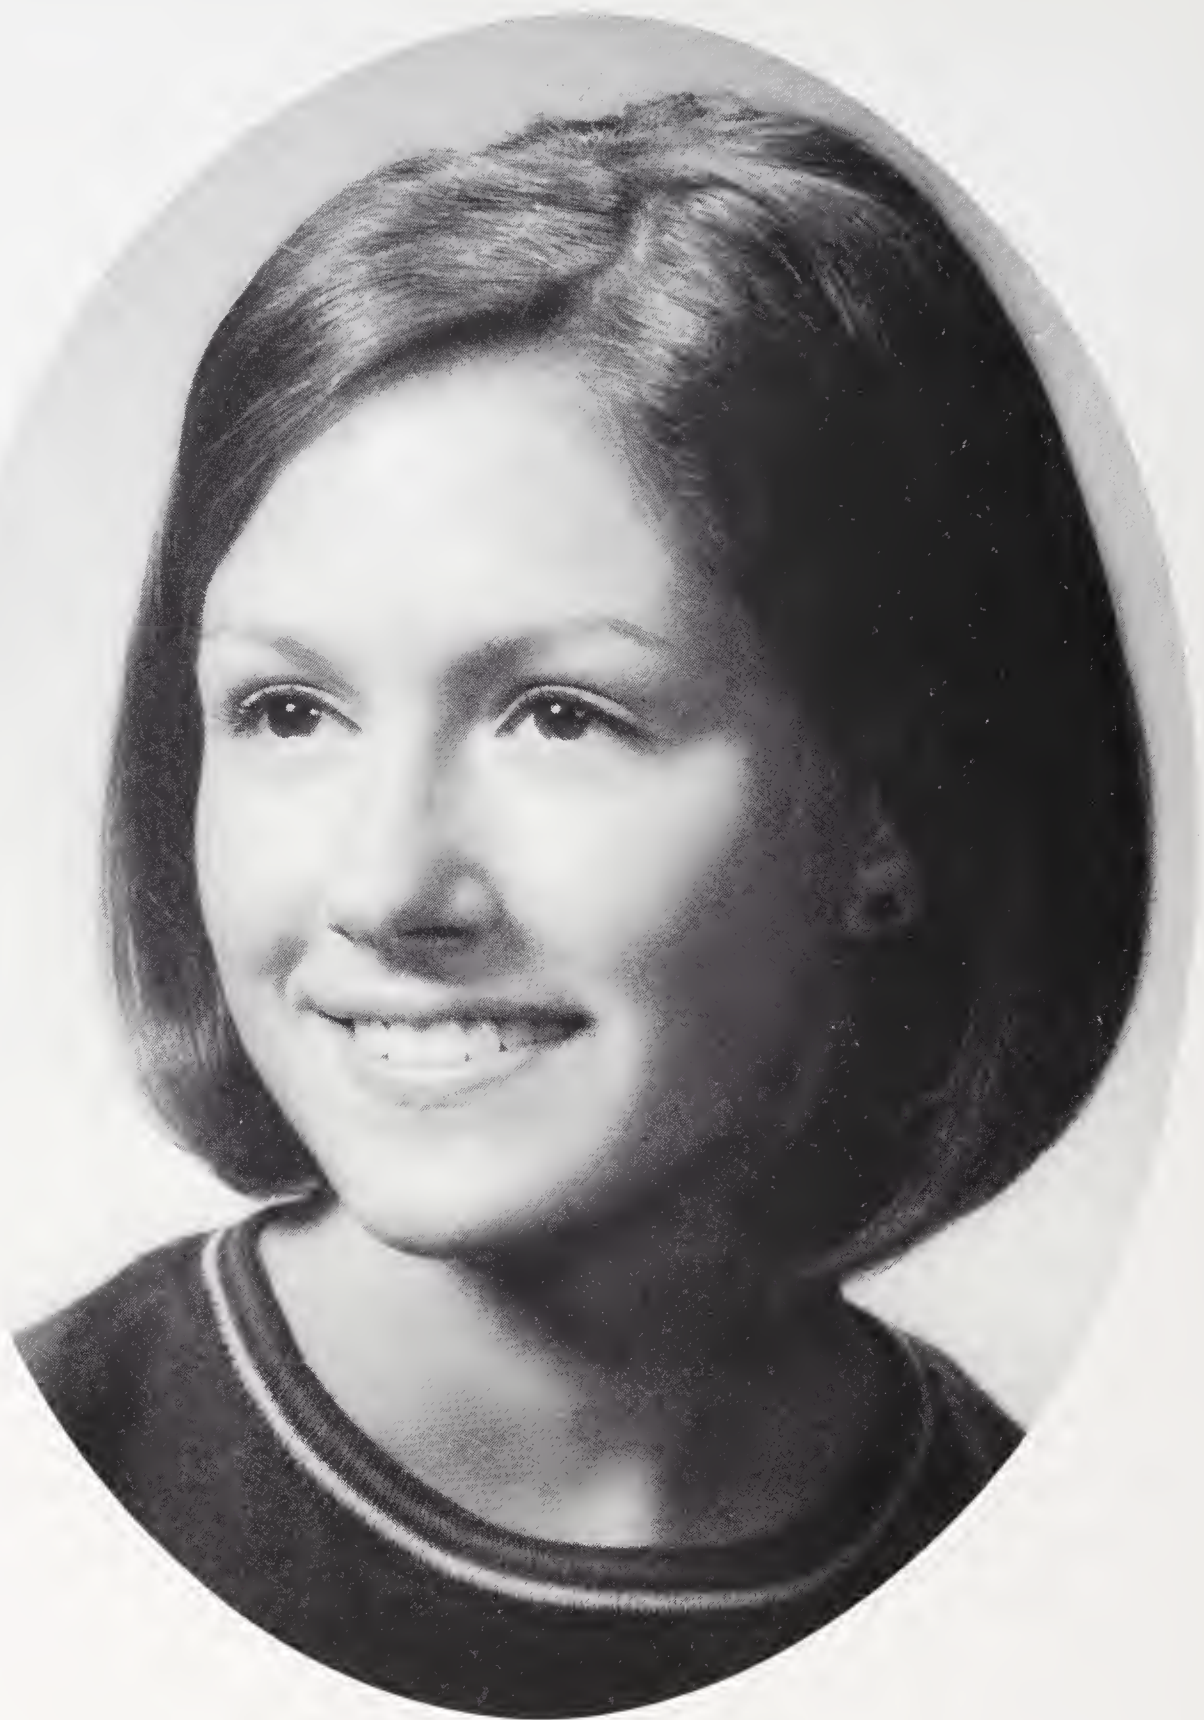

For the first time this year, two additional awards were presented to band members. First, each month the members selected one person to be featured as "Bandsman of the Month" in the News Herald. This gave recognition to outstanding members and called the attention of the public to their accomplishments. Second, at the end of the year, the "Best All-around Senior Bandsman" was chosen.

SUSAN CASH
Miss Key Club

It was a seemingly normal Friday night, if one failed to notice the nervous enthusiasm of the players, or the faint flutter in the hearts of twenty girls, or the throbs of anxiety felt by the crowd.

The twentieth of October would not consent to be an ordinary night. This Homecoming was to be a night to remember.

As the spectators watched intently, the lovely sponsors and their escorts were presented on the field. Then, a hush fell over the crowd as the long-awaited announcement was made: "And now, ladies and gentlemen—Miss Homecoming for 1967-1968—Miss Susan Cash!"

Radiant through tears of happiness, Susan took her place under the ivy-twined arch where she received her crown from Tom Brothers, president of the senior class, and her roses from Miss M.H.S., Robin Bounous.

Thus, the 1967 Homecoming assumed its place in the pages of M.H.S. history and in the hearts of the students.

Miss

The stage was set; the contestants readied, as an anxious audience waited. The 1967 Miss M.H.S. Pageant was nearing reality. The band, directed by Mr. Ray Babelay; the chorus, led by Mr. Philip Genet; and Bill Leslie singing "Moon River", joined together to provide an air of sophistication and excitement. Tensions mounted as the procession of lovely candidates and their escorts was introduced by the gracious co-announcers, Tom Brothers and Vickie Monroe. The faint flicker of light played havoc with the rising emotions as each girl reached into the "Question Box". With confidence and new assurance, every candidate presented her answer to an intent audience.

"As selected by the candidates, I present "Miss Congeniality" . . . Miss Mary Louise Dougher." Her shoulder band was awarded by Don Saunders and Mike Buff, co-captains of the football team.

"And now, the eight semi-finalists are . . . Miss Sue Avery, Miss Robin Bounous, Miss Dorothy Conley, Miss Susan Conley, Miss Mary Lou Dougher, Miss Barbara Lingerfelt, Miss Dixie Rollins, and Miss Margaret Sakowski. The four finalists . . . Miss Robin Bounous, Miss Dorothy Conley, Miss Susan Conley, and Miss Margaret Sakowski. The third runner-up, Miss Margaret Sakowski—the second runner-up, Miss Susan Conley—the first runner-up, Miss Dorothy Conley . . ." A tearful, but radiantly happy Robin Bounous stood alone to the joyous delight of the entire audience—"Miss M.H.S. for 1967 . . . Miss Robin Bounous."

MHS

Margaret Sakowski, 3rd runner-up; Dorothy Conley, 1st runner-up; Susan Conley, 2nd runner-up.
